THE WILHELM FAMILY OF NORTHWESTERN BERKS

John H. Grimes

In 2002 while travelling in Germany with a Paul Marko tour, we stopped at the village of Hochstadt near the southern terminus of the Weinstrasse in the Rheinland-Pfaltz near the Alsatian border. I had known previously that a number of inhabitants of this village had come to Pennsylvania in the 18th century and settled north of Womelsdorf in the area of Host Church in Tulpehocken Twp. I presented a list of surnames of my ancestors to local historian Gert Pressler, hoping that he might recognize their names as people who had emigrated from Hochstadt. I went away disappointed because he did not recognize any of the names. He walked away thrilled that I knew his distant relative, Irv Bressler of Bethel.

Sometime after my return to Pennsylvania, I came across a copy of Annette K. Burgert's Hochstadt Origins of Some Early Settlers at Host Church. I was embarassed to discover that the family of my Wilhelm cousins, that I had already begun to research, was included in the book, starting with the immigrant, Johann Jacob Wilhelm from Niederhochstadt.

Johann Jacob Wilhelm and his wife, Catharina (nee Unruh), arrived at Philadelphia 12 Sep 1734 aboard the ship "St. Andrew." With them were sons, Johann Jacob bap. 1728 and Johann Valentin bap. 1731, confirmed in the church books of Niederhochstadt and identified by Annette K. Burgert. While little is known of their earliest whereabouts, they must have first lived in Berks Co., because the births of sons Philip Jacob (1738) and Johann Adam (1742) were both recorded at Christ Little Tulpehocken Church in what is now Jefferson Twp. At a later date, he moved to Lancaster Co. where he was listed as a resident of Prince St. in the city of Lancaster.

In his will, Lancaster Co. Will Book F, vol. 1, p. 619, he mentions five children,Johann Jacob, Philip Jacob, Adam, Maria Catharina, and Maria Barbara. Presumably Valentin had died young as there is no record of him. The will dictated that eldest son Jacob was to receive his 160 acre plantation in Tulpehocken Twp., while sons Philip Jacob, and Adam, were to split another plantation in Manheim Twp., Lancaster Co.

Johann Jacob Wilhelm was buried at First Reformed Church in Lancaster on 12 Oct 1773. Based on his age at the time of his death, he was born circa 1700. Johann Jacob was also responsible for initiating the disconcerting and confusing habit in following generations of naming sons Johann Jacob and Philip Jacob.

Johann Jacob, eldest son of the immigrant, was born in 1728 in Niederhochstadt and came to Pennnsylvania with his parents as a young boy. He is the progenitor of most, if not all, of the early Wilhelms in northwestern Berks Co., despite earlier references to a Christian Wilhelm who apparently died in Lebanon Twp., Lancaster Co. (now Lebanon Co.) by Morton Montgomery in his Historical and Biographical Annals of Berks County (1909).

Johann Jacob was living on the plantation in Tulpehocken Twp. well in advance of his father's death because the records of St. John's (Host) Reformed Church record the baptisms of his children, starting in 1754 with son Johann Adam. His wife's name was Anna Barbara, her surname unknown. In his will, Berks Co. Will Book A, p. 126, 1786 he names five children, Johann Adam, Anna Barbara, Maria Abelony (Appolonia), Maria Barbara, and Philip Jacob. We know from communion records there was a fourth daughter, Maria Catharina. There was also a mysterious son, Johann Jacob, not mentioned in his father's will, but in the will of his uncle, Johann Adam Wilhelm in Lancaster Co.

Immigrant Johann Jacob's third son, Philip Jacob, appears to have lived his entire adult life in Lancaster Co. He married 25 May 1764 Elisabetha Haverstich, daughter of Col. Michael Haverstich. He also gained some military experience as Capt. Jacob Wilhelm, leader of a company of Lancaster Co. militia in 1781. In his will, Lancaster Co. Will Book J, vol. 1, pp. 350-352, he listed his occupation as an innkeeper living in the city of Lancaster. He had retained 179 acres of land in Manheim Twp., but it is doubtful that he farmed it himself. His will refers to twelve children, but only four are named, Jacob, Adam, Barbara, and Catharina. His son, Jacob, was to receive his father's residence in Lancaster and the 179 acres in Manheim Twp. His son, Adam, was to remain in school to get a college education and become a minister of the gospel.

Philip Jacob, like his father, was connected with First Reformed Church. He was buried there 21 Oct 1795. His widow, Elisabetha, was later married 17 Jan 1796 to Andreas (Andrew) Foltz. There is no evidence that any of Philip Jacob's children ever contributed to the Wilhelm population of Berks County.

Immigrant Johann Jacob's youngest son, Johann Adam, was born in 1742 in Berks County. His occupation is not given in his will (Lancaster Co. Will Book O, vol. 1, p. 200), but it is known that he lived on Queen Street in the City of Lancaster. The name of his wife, Barbara, is only known from a baptismal record of one of the children of his brother, Philip Jacob, for whom they were sponsors. Johann Adam and Barbara had no known children, but they did adopt a girl, Anna Maria, b. 25 Feb 1768, as recorded at First Reformed Church in Lancaster.

At the time of his death, Johann Adam was apparently a widower without children. He does mention that he is now living with Magdalena Fetter. Fortunately for us, in his will dated 6 Jul 1824 he ties the whole family together by discussing Jacob and Adam, nephews, and sons of his deceased brother, Philip Jacob, and John Jacob, Philip Jacob, and Johann Adam, nephews and sons of his deceased brother, Johann Jacob in Tulpehocken, and Barbara Feree and Elisabetha Haverstich , nieces, and daughters of his sister, Catharina Zanck.

Following is the outline of the family.
